

Motherwear has been supporting breastfeeding for over 28 years. Their website is a convenient and fun way for nursing moms (and those who love them!) to shop for a nursing wardrobe. But Motherwear's commitment to nursing doesn't stop at the highest quality clothing and services available. They want all women to feel empowered with the knowledge that they're giving the best possible start to their babies.

Motherwear's Current Promotions

Motherwear knows a new baby in the home can place a strain on your wallet. Therefore, they have created a special offer where everyone can save on their next purchase of nursingwear, nursing bras and accessories. Use code SAVE to save 10% on your entire order.

Motherwear's Breastfeeding Resources

At Motherwear, they want to help more women breastfeed their babies and enable and encourage a longer breastfeeding relationship. They offer the following breastfeeding resources, links, information and forums and welcome you to this free information on their website at www.motherwear.com/br.
